

For more information Dial 211 or 1-800-505-1000
www.childcareinfo.org

Out of School Care Options in Connecticut

Many existing programs provide care and activities for school age children. Information on services available for all Connecticut families can be provided by the agencies below:

211 Child Care

- Child Care Referrals- For information and referrals to Summer Camps, Parent/Child Activity Groups, Licensed Day Care Homes, Daycare Centers and In-Home Resources, please call 211 Child Care at 211 or 1-800-505-1000.
- Website - www.childcareinfo.org

211

- Recreational Programs- For information and referrals to Boys & Girl Scouts, Boys & Girls Clubs, Mentoring Programs, Tutoring, Homework Assistance Line, and Parks & Recreation Departments, please call Health and Human Services at 211.
- Website - www.211info.org

Department of Children & Families

- Home Alone Packet & Information- For assistance with home alone questions, an individual may contact DCF to discuss the situation and seek further guidance to help make an informed decision. For a packet of information please call the DCF Public Affairs and Communications office at (860)550-6684.
- Website - <http://www.state.ct.us/dcf/index.htm>

Local Police Departments

- Home Alone Laws & Safety Tips- Individuals seeking information on when a child can be left home alone or safety tips on this topic, can contact their local police department for further guidance.

Connecticut After School Network

- Advocacy for after school care in your community- For information about efforts to increase the availability and quality of after school programs, please call the CT After School Network at 203-483-9757.
- Website - www.ctafterschoolnetwork.org

